

The Family Centre

Where families come first!

An accredited not for profit social service agency is seeking:

Full Time and Part Time Family Support Workers

To provide in-home quality child care and support to Winnipeg families during times of stress. We believe in strong families and strong communities. We offer on-going training and development, benefits and a commitment to our employees. Being available to work 3 evenings per week is mandatory. If you are willing to travel throughout Winnipeg and have experience in providing quality child care, we welcome your application.

Successful applicants are subject to a Criminal Records Check and Child Abuse Registry Check.

Please forward your resume via fax, e-mail or in person to:
