

Learning Opportunity

401-393 Portage Ave (Portage Place)

Cost: FREE

Workshop space is reserved for participants working in early learning and child care programs. Limit of 2 participants per site.

Please note that environmental allergies are a serious problem for many people. Perfumes and cologne can be a number one trigger. We invite you to help us ensure that all participants can enjoy the workshop by not wearing scented products.

Upcoming learning opportunities are also listed on the website: www.familycentre.mb.ca

RSVP Anne Grewar at 947-1401 or amgrewar@familycentre.mb.ca to reserve your spot as space is limited.

Part 1	-	Thursday, November 17, 2011	6:00 – 9:00 p.m.
Part 2	-	Thursday, November 24, 2011	6:00 – 9:00 p.m.
Part 3	-	Thursday, December 1, 2011	6:00 – 9:00 p.m.

Meeting the Challenge

This 3-part workshop series will focus on effective strategies for challenging behaviours in early learning environments and is based on the popular book by Barbara Kaiser and Judy Sklar-Rasminsky.

Facilitators: Martha Elliott and Shay-Leigh Smythe are both Behaviour Support Coordinators in the Family and Child Care Resources Program at The Family Centre